Project

Field(s) European Remembrance, Rural, Cultural heritage,

Description The project is based on the memory, exchange of experiences and honoring victims from WW2. Especially victims incurred after WW2. Many civilians and soldiers after WW2 have left Croatia without leaving a trace in popularly called "Bleiburg Calvary". After 70 years, for so many people we don't know where they are, and where are their graves. With this project we want to refresh the memory about these innocent victims, and with our partners (especially partners from Austria and Slovenia), maybe find out something more about their disappearance.
